Cadiz, Decemmber 23. The Sixth Inſtant Four Engliſh Merchant-men bound to Turkey, ſailed hence in Company of ſome other Ships bound up the Streights. The Eighteenth the St. Charles a new Spaniſh Man of War of 84 Guns and 800 Men coming from Naples richly Laden to the value of 2 Millions of pieces of Eight, ſtruck upon a Rock about 5 Leagues from this place, and was loſt, with about 150 of her Men. The 23d an Advice-Boat arrived here from the Havana in 53 days, with an account that the Galeons ſailed from thence the 1ſt of September, but after having been 4 or 5 days at Sea, they met with a Storm, in which the Admiral and 2 other Ships proving very Leaky, they were forced to return to the Havana to refit, ſo that they are not now expected home before April or May next. The Moors are ſtill before Ceuta, but ſo diſcouraged with their ill Succeſs, that we expect every day to hear they have raiſed the Siege.

Warſaw, Jan. 14. The King of Poland having in his Journey from Cracow been very ſplendidly entertained at the Houſes of divers Perſons of Quality, arrived laſt Friday at Gura, about 5 Leagues from this City, where he ſtaid till all things were put in order for his Entry. On the 12th Inſtant His Majeſty parted thence early in the Morning, about 9 arrived at Villanova, and after a Noble Entertainment given him by the Queen Dowager, His Majeſty, accompanied by the 2 Princes Alexander and Conſtantin, Sons of the laſt King, came to Czericow, 4 miles diſtant from this place, where he was met by the Great Officers of the Crown, by the Senate, and generally, by all Perſons of Note that were in Town, among whom was the Biſhop of Plosko, at the Head of a Party that had formerly ſided with the Prince of Conty, who now ſtrove to out do the reſt in Demonſtrations of Duty to His Majeſty. The King being come to the Triumphal Arch raiſed near the City Gate, was Complimented by our Magiſtrates, who preſented to him the Keys of the City. His Majeſty went directly to the Cathedral, and was there received by the Clergy; And Maſs being Sung, with a Triple diſcharge of the Artillery, His Majeſty repaired to the Caſtle, where he was Complimented by the Palatin of Plosko our Governor, and in the Evening made a Viſit to the Queen Dowager, who was returned from Villanova. Frequent Conſultations are held here concerning the raiſing of Money to pay the Lithuanian Forces, and the ſetling the Affairs of the Kingdom; The Cardinal Primate hitherto continues obſtinate, in rejecting the Propoſals made to him; But he and the Palatin Kyovia are the only two conſiderable Perſons that have not yet made their ſubmiſſion to His Majeſty. The Northern Crowns have by their Miniſters here, given the King freſh Aſſurances of their Friendſhip and deſire of continuing in good Correſpondency with him. There is no time yet fixed for the meeting of the General Dyet. Our Advices from the Frontier bring an account, that the Tartars are preparing to carry to Caminiec the Proviſions they have brought together at Jaw, for which the Froſt gives them an opportunity, by rendring the ways more paſſable, which being done, 'tis apprehended they will make an inroad into Poland, and orders are therefore ſent to our Forces on the Frontiers, to have a watchful Eye on their motions.

Dantzicke, Jan. 26. Letters from Warſaw of the 21ſt give an Account, that new endeavours were uſed by the Biſhop of Raab, and Palatin of Culm, to bring over the Primate to the King's Intereſt, and that they were to that end gone to Lowitz, where he ſtill reſides, having ſome reaſon to believe they ſhould find him in a better diſpoſition to accommodate matters, then he ſhewed at the laſt meeting ſome Perſons of Quality had with him for that purpoſe.
